Bobby Parent Services Friday

SP5 Robert W Parent, 21 years old, returned to Wilmington last night - to the Cavanaugh Funeral Home on Main Street.

SP4 Leo Parent of Springfield, a cousin to Bobby, was the Honor Guard, detailed by the US Army, and the casket was met at Logan Airport by an Honor Guard from the Wilmington Veterans organizations, who escorted Bobby from the airport to the funeral home.

The body is to lie in state at the funeral home. Visting hours today are to be from 2 to 4 pm and from 7 to 10 pm.

The funeral will be from the W. S. Cavanaugh & Son Funeral Home at 8:30 am Friday, with a Solemn High Mass of Requiem to be celebrated at St. Thomas Church at 9:30 am. Internment is to be in the Soldiers Lot in Wildwood Cemetery. The family have asked that flowers be omitted, and that instead donations be made to the Wilmington Hospital Building Fund.

Bobby Parent is survived by his mother and father, Virginia and Lionel Parent, of Clifton Street, two brothers, Thomas J and David, both of Wilmington, and a grandmother, Mrs Ella Wadleigh of Billerica.

ALMOST HOME: The casket containing the body of SP 5 Robert W Parent, killed in action on July 21 in Vietnam, arrived at the Logan Airport last night, and was met by representatives of Wilmington Post 136, American Legion, the William F. Tattersall Chapter DAV., and the Nee-Ellsworth Post of the Veterans of Foreign Wars. The veterans are shown transferring the casket to the hearse of the W S Cavanaugh & Son Funeral Home.

Up One Buck

TAX RATE $35

The Tax Rate for 1968, for the Town of Wilmington, was set yesterday afternoon by Principal Assessor Anthony Kreczynski, at $35.00, up one dollar from the 1967 tax rate.

The rate was set after approval by the Massachusetts Department of Corporations and Taxation.

The new tax rate is designed to raise a total (net) of $3,622,507.

The total valuation of property in Wilmington was declared to be $103,500,200, an increase of over $4 1/2 Millions from last year.

Pre-School Registration

All children who have not registered for Grade I in the Wilmington Public Schools, who will be six (6) years of age on or before December 31, 1968, plus transfers from other towns, may register at the High School on the following dates from 9 am to 3:30 pm.

August 7, 1968 - all children whose names begin A - L

August 8, 1968 - all children whose names begin M - Z

A birth certificate from town records is required by law. A certificate of successful vaccination against small pox, certificates of immunization against diphtheria, tetanus, whooping cough, measles and poliomyelitis are also required

If the physical condition of a child is endangered by immunization, a doctor's certificate is required stating this fact.

If religious beliefs conflict with immunization, a form from your church is required.

Temple Shalom

Temple Shalom announces that High Holiday Services (Slichos Rosh Hashona, and Yom Kippur) will be held as usual this year.

Schedule will be announced at an early future date.

No August Clinic

The Board of Health Department of the Town of Wilmington has announced that there will be no immunization clinic during the month of August.

The clinic will resume its usual schedule in September.

Post Office Burglary Solved?

A trial in the District Court of Newton, Tuesday, indicates that there are clues as to who were the persons who entered the Wilmington Post Office on May 21st last, and stole $6,000 and a number of U.S. Postal Money Orders.

Russell Carmichael, 23, of Newton, is free on $23,000 bond, after having been found guilty on three counts Tuesday, of illegal possession of US Postal Money Orders. He was sentenced to the Billerica House of Correction for two years on each count, to be served concurrently, and is free on bail pending appeal to the Middlesex Superior Court.

Carmichael was also bound over to the Middlesex Grand Jury on other charges, having to do with armed robbery.

Postal Clerks Walter Strem and Sidney Kaiser, of the Wilmington Post Office, testified that some of the money orders, shown in evidence, were taken from the Wilmington Post Office on May 21st.

Carmichael's wife, Carol Ann, 23, also charged with three counts of possessing stolen money orders, was also found guilty. She was fined $100. It had been suggested by the prosecutor that she be put on probation for two years, because of her condition. When her attorney indicated that the case was to be appealed to the Superior Court the sentencing had to be determined. Her attorney will appeal the case.

Mr and Mrs Carmichael were two of six persons to appear before Justice Julian L. Yancey, on various and related charges having to do with burglary in the night time and armed robbery. All defendants entered pleas of not guilty except one, who waived a hearing.

The four other defendants will face Grand Jury action, as will Carmichael.

Strem and Kaiser spent several days in the Newton Court, waiting for the case to come before the bar, and to testify.

How To Raise $7.10

WHAT BETTER THING IS THERE TO DO? Than have a Back Yard Picnic on a hot July day, and invite the neighbors and their children! That is what happened at the Olson home on Cedar Crest Road, Tuesday, and there were all sorts of fun and refreshments. Karen Olson, hostess, is shown getting youngsters ready for a Three-Legged Race. PS. $7.10 was raised and sent to the Jimmy Fund.

'Wrong-Side Angie' Gets Thriller!

Angelo 'Lefty' Licari of Boutwell Street in Wilmington, who has been playing at the Colonial Country Golf Club in Lynnfield these past few years made a fabulous Hole in One at the Colonial on Sunday July 21, 1968.

It was on the eighth hole, par 3, 187 yards with a 6 iron.

Playing along with Lefty were Dick Alberghine, Bill Marino, and Chick Teverl. of Lynnfield and East Boston.

No Opposition?

Rep. Fred F. Cain (D) of Wilmington seemingly has no opposition in his campaign to be re-elected to the State Legislature.

Mr Cain filed his nomination papers for the 24th Middlesex District, but no Republican has filed.

Several prominent persons of Wilmington have been asked to file for the Republican nomination, according to reports.

SUPERINTENDENT

Benjamin F. Hehn has been appointed superintendent of meteorological balloon production by W. R. Grace & Co. Dewey and Almy Chemical Division in Cambridge.

The division is a leading manufacturer of rubber balloons used principally for weather observations and meteorological research. Mr. Hehn joined Dewey and Almy in 1966 as a manufacturing engineer. He served five years on active duty with the navy and is now a lieutenant in the U.S. Naval Reserves.

In 1960, he received a BA Degree in Chemistry from Cornell University and in 1967 he received an MBA from the University of Rhode Island. He is a member of the Cornell Society of Engineers and the American Chemical Soc.

Mr. Hehn is active in town affairs. He is a member of the Board of Directors of the Community Chest, a charter member and on the Board of Directors for Wilmington Kiwanis International, a member of the Republican Town Committee, and active in the Congregational Church.

He and his wife with four daughters live at Three Ferguson Road.

Nosey Nancy

Send your announcements to Nancy, Box 208, Wilmington, or call 657-7141, or after five, 658-4865. If I'm not there, I'll call you.

It does seem there folks, that an Anxious Mother from Wilmington wrote to the Herald last week and asked for an arts and crafts place for the kids near to Wilmington...And on July 26, our own Ruth McCabe answered: 'Dear Anxious Mother: Your children would be most welcome in our arts and crafts workshop at 403 Woburn St Wilmington. We meet on Tuesday and Thursday mornings. For information, call 658-2985...and if you haven't been snowed with phone calls yet, Ruth, you probably will be...

In Miami Beach for the summer are Sonny Kroll of Moore Street, Barry LeVaas of North Street, and Bob Cripps, the Problems in Democracy and US History Teacher from the High School...They want all of you friends to watch them on TV next week...They'll be working at the Republican Convention! (Nice going, there, fellas!)

Baa, Baa, and I think they were white sheep that Bob Evans sheared and I'll bet he's the only farmer in the world that ships his wool by mail. Saw him lugging it from the wagon to the Post Office with his usual grin...Found out later that he was shipping it to some mill to have yarn made...Wonder if BJ has to knit all of the sweaters and what kind of wool they are making...Would we believe blankets for the shorn sheep? Sounds like something Evans might cook up!

The Boys are appearing one at a time. Mike Kasabusi is out and back to work...Father Reagan is around and about Wilmington...but believe he's only on vacation...and Kevin McKelvey left this gal a note at the office this am...Sorry to miss you, Kevin. Please do come in again and fill me in on all of the Details!

Did you know that the Lipperts had spent a week with their daughter and husband in Biloxi, Mississippi, and I'll bet it was warm there if Wilmington has been any indication...Arthur Elman went to Canada on his vacation...He may not get back if they take him for a woodsman with that beard!...Danny Sughrue of Floradale Ave had to spend part of his vacation at the NE San for some surgery...but is home hale and hearty as ever...Do they reserve your bed there Danny?...Mrs Elmer Clark from Vineyard Haven has been visiting with her grandchildren and great-grandchildren during the past week (and don't tell anyone, that's the Clan)...everyone enjoyed himself since this is only a semi-annual or annual occurrence...The Melanders of Church Street and Ceric Fabricating are all brown as berries. They spend their weekends cruising around a Lake in New Hampshire and I understand that last week, there was a squall and Carl was busy rescuing the sailors with his cabin cruiser!

The Crusaders did extremely well in their competition last week at the Everett Stadium and I understand that Donna Servideo is still sporting a couple of black eyes to prove it. Understand that she was so busy getting to where she was going that she hit a support...right between the eyes.

The Crusaders Drill is being changed. Henceforth it will be Monday instead of Thursday from 7 to 9 at the West Intermediate School.

The Kids in the Crusaders are making an appeal to the other Kids in Town: If you are 13 to 19 years old, hear this!

'What have you done for excitement during the past year? Nothing much? Hanging around all the time? Always saying there's nothing to do?

'Not us. We got the best deal in town. We've been travelling somewhere almost every week, and sometimes more than once. We do every year. We've met kids from Everywhere. Some of them write to us like pen pals now.

'This past winter, we went roller skating every three weeks, we went to three formal balls, plus ran one of our own. We had a banquet, and were invited to two more. We have parties.

This summer, we are travelling to about thirty different cities and towns, including places like Nashua, Portland, Fitchburg, Stoughton, Pembroke, and Seabrook, NH.

'We've been invited to Middleboro for a huge splash party, with parties following. We are going to have a coed softball game with a bunch of kids from Millis, just for fun, and then we're going out there for more of the same a little later.

'The only complaint we have is that there are not enough kids. We have a ball, but we think more kids would be more fun. Our average age is around 15 or 16.

'What are we talking about? The Crusaders Drum Corps. Before you put the paper down, if you're thinking a drum corps is like a band, forget it! You're crazy! It's a whole different world - a special thing - really whacked out. Some kids think that the only ones who join a drum corps are the dinks. They're out of their tree. We know loads of drum corps kids and they all think it's the other way around. The dinks are the ones who don't know a good thing when they see it. It's sort of like a special club with 50¢ a week dues. Where can you get this much for that, today? Drum Corps kids wear all the new clothes and hairdos, dance all the new dances, love all the new music. We've run into a dip now and then who thinks he can make a fool of a drum corps kid, only to find out it can't be done. We don't knuckle under to dinks. In other words, don't knock it till you try it.

'We really would like to take some long trips, like the corps that competed all the way across country from Wyoming and back last summer...It took them two months, or the one that just toured Canada, or the one going to Florida or New Orleans next month for the Nationals. You just can't get these kind of contests with a small corps. We need some more kids, so we can make some plans of our own.

'Besides all the social stuff, it's really fun to compete. It takes a lot of practice and all, but it's really worth it when you win a prize. It's like being on the school football team. You have to work, but it's worth it when you win a game.

'There are really good kids in the other corps too. That's half the fun of the competitions. There 95 Middlesex Avenue is the address of an ordinary looking house - yet it was at this address, many years ago, that the packaged seed industry was started, by Miss Sabra Carter.

The daughter of Timothy Carter she was probably born in a house that stood on Nichols Street near the railroad, and was one of the first in this country to burn down 'from the sparks' of a locomotive back in 1837.

She was born in 1821, and lived at the Middlesex Ave address for more than forty years before her death in 1893.

Many of the people in the various Carter Families in Wilmington have had their eccentricities, but Sabra was one who made some of them pay off, for she started packaging flower seeds for friends and built it into a fine business, believed to be the first commercial seed-packet business in the United States.

Her business prospered so well that she added to her home several times, and after her death when it was sold at auction, the house was divided into three parts - two of which stand today at the Main Street end of Middlesex Ave, opposite Weinberg's Department Store.

Sabra was a common name in those days, and she should not be confused with the Sabra D J Carter who founded the Carter Lectures in Wilmington.

Sabra's mother, it is reported, was the person who gave to the Town of Wilmington what is now Wilmington Common, although there are other stories on this same subject, but it was Sabra who gave the town the Town Clock in the steeple of the Congregational Church.

Sabra was a student of languages and had a fairly good command of French, and a good knowledge of both Latin and Greek, but she went abroad only once, when she was about 70 years old, to spend three months in France and Switzerland.

It was when she returned that she set the town agog, by a proposal to set up some trust funds - proposals which the town accepted, and then later rejected.

For Sabra hated three things dogs, tobacco and liquor, and in addition, as a good sharp business woman she wanted to drive good sharp bargains, - bargains which the town felt were not needed.

Sabra owned 10 shares of a company known as the Lombard Investment Company, another 20 shares of the Howard State Bank of Kansas, which she proposed to give to the town. The value was about $5000.

In return the town was to spend the income on a number of items.

The Lombard income was to be spent in painting the homes of the townspeople, as needed -

Except - no one who owned a dog, or had owned one for the past two years could apply. Neither could a person apply if he had ever used tobacco, and furthermore, he must be a member of a temperance society.

The income from the Denver Electric Light was to be used one half for providing scientific works and travel books for the public library and the other half for public lectures on the same subjects - but the lectures must be on a Wednesday afternoon.

The Howard State Bank income was to be divided into 8 parts. Two parts were for renovating cemetery stones, one for keeping the Carter graveyard in good condition, 2 for planting trees by the wayside, and three for buying settees which would be set by the wayside for travellers to use while resting.

The town voted, in annual town meeting, to accept the offer, but one month later, the Selectmen voted unanimously to reject it.

Henry Blanchard, who was the Chairman of the Board, said that Sabra had drawn up a legal document that tied the town up in knots and guaranteed safe keeping of the money with no benefit to the town.

There was, of course, a lot of excitement, and the Boston papers reported on the business with some amusement, but Sabra's money was not accepted.

Sabra died a few years later, and she saw to it that her body was buried in the Woburn cemetery - she wouldn't be buried in a town that didn't want her money.

There was a contest to break her will. She had left her estate to form a home of her house for 'poor girls of Wilmington', and some of the provisions were that the girls had to wear her gowns, which were described as 'lavender'.

The contest alleged that she was insane, but judge did not so rule. He said she was just a 'queer character'.

The executors found that it would be impossible to keep to the provisions of her will, and thus accomplished the same purpose. They sold the house and all of her belongings at public auction, and probably divided the estate as they had been planning anyway.

Project Head Start

Project Head Start, to some people, is just another boon-doggie, another way to spend the government's money.

It may do some good, they will be-grudgingly say, in getting women and children off the streets, but that's about all!

Project Head Start is much more than that. It is a means of bringing under-privileged children into social contact with the world, where they will learn the art of living, and being acceptable to their neighbors and school mates of future years.

Each day of the week about sixty of these children are brought to the Woburn Street School, for four hours. They are taught social graces, rudimentary perhaps. They are taught to evaluate companionship. They are prepared for the school years that are to come.

Families in moderate circumstances can send children to kindergartens, where such things are taught. But not all families can do this - and Project Head Start - in a small way - takes up some of the slack.

SCHOOL BUSES TAKE THE CHILDREN: To and from home.

A PICNIC UNDER THE PINE TREES: Enjoyed on a Friday morning

GROUP STORY HOUR: Enjoyed by youngsters and helpers alike

PAINTING WITH WATER IS FUN

A GROUP SINGING LESSON: At the piano is Mrs Norma Nolan, and her assistant is Mrs Alice Sullivan.

THOMAS MANUEL ON DEAN'S LIST

Thomas G. Manuel, of 257 Shaw-sheen Avenue, in Wilmington, Mass has been named to the Union College Academic Dean's List for Scholastic Attainment during the spring semester. To be eligible for this honor, a student must earn a minimum of 50 quality points or a B standing for the full semester.

Manuel is the son of Mr and Mrs James Manuel and is a graduate of Wilmington High School.

Union College is a senior liberal arts institution affiliated with the Methodist Church. 92 students out of an enrollment of 950 achieved this honor for the spring semester.

FATHER JOHN REGAN: Former Curate of St. Thomas Church, was led to believe that this picture of him was to be published in the Town Crier last week, when he was visiting Wilmington on his return from duty in Panama, with the U.S. Air Force.

Instead the Town Crier published a photo of Fr. Regan teaching Henry Porter a new golf grip, a picture taken unbeknownst to either Mr Porter or the good priest.

Fr. Regan is being assigned to George Air Force Base, in Southern California.

IT WEIGHED ONLY 38 TONS

Neil Hendrickson of Grace Drive had an accident that should go down in the books, last week.

His car was struck by a truck at the Shaw-sheen Avenue bridge (load limit 6 tons) which grossed 38 tons weight. The driver admitted that he was afraid to drive too close to the edge of the bridge, for fear of falling off.

BOB BRUNELLE EARNS HIGHEST HONORS

Robert J. Brunelle, of 9 Beacon Street in Wilmington, a Junior at the College of Liberal Arts of Suffolk University has been named to the Dean's List with Highest Honors for the second semester of the 1967-68 academic year. Mr Brunelle is majoring in Chemistry.

FRANCIS WALSH NAMED ADVISORY FACULTY MEMBER

Francis J. Walsh of 28 Sheridan Road in Wilmington, a member of the faculty of the Math Department at Wentworth Institute has been named to serve as an advisor for the 1968-69 year by Dr H Russell Beatty, President.

FROM THE BOX SEAT

The Wildcats of the Suburban Pony League are 1968 champs! Mike Esposito pitched Warren Everett's boys to an 8-3 win over Allied for a sweep of the best two of three final playoffs. Big hits by Butch Everett, Dick Gillis and Tommy Mirasola sent the Reading Club home quite disappointed and soundly beaten. Head umpire Bob Dacey informs the chair that the coaches and league officers are responsible for the nonsensical scheduling berided last week. A combined team of pony leaguers from the Mavericks and Wildcats are entered in a tournament at Lexington starting weekend.

While on tournaments, the Newhouse Construction team lost out on the final day of the State Class A Championship. A two-run setback to the Fairhaven Aces on Friday night was repeated on Sunday in the double elimination round-robin. In between defeats by the Aces, Jim Tighe's boys overpowered clubs from Lawrence and Sturbridge on Saturday. Al McDonald belted three homers, Dave Newhouse one, and Jim Melzar and Lynn Billings fielded spectacularly and added some timely bingles...

Lanky Frankie Stone smashed a round tripper and shut out the Sons of Italy 12-0 in a tuneup for the game of the year in the Town Softball League Thursday night. Jackie Pellerin's Legionnaires will really be up for this one against Dan Bemis' Rocco's. The clubs are sharing the top spot and it's a shame that this meeting will have to be made anticlimactic by the impending playoffs...Great Britain lost its third racing car driver of the year the other day. Great sport, eh what?

Other towns have upwards of 200 kids trying out for much less successful Pop Warner teams. Wilmington has but 56 sign ups thusfar. Tryouts for Pop Warner cheerleaders at Wilmington High school at 6:00 this evening. Don't forget the Legion sponsored Pass, Punt, Kick, and Sprint contest Saturday morning at the same high school field. Boys 10-13 can pick up some handsome trophies for their skills.

Captain Eddie Gillis has his WHS mates working out nightly in preparation for the upcoming season.

Wouldn't you think the Moreheads, Stephansons, Wazlewskis, Landises and Lyles would notice how much control means when they see how Pizarro, Culp and Ellsworth can get by without a hummer

The Patriots outplayed the Lowell Giants for the last five minutes of the game Tuesday night displaying some prize and a few booby rookies for the local folks. The speed of R C Gamble, Aaron Marsh and others should give the Parilli-less Pats a big lift this year. Watch for a punter named Payne to beat out Terry Swanson. He averaged 46 yards a boot last year in minor league ball and has been very impressive thusfar.

FROM OUR HIPPI-LESS COMMON

Praise be, Town Manager Morris! He's kept the hippies off our beautiful common. How did he do it, you ask? I'm getting to that, my patient fellow, Wilmingtonians. The T. M., fully cognizant of the love of grassy, darkened, public terrain by the flower children, perspicaciously saw to it that the lights weren't installed at the Town Park this summer. He wisely foresaw that scratching, long-tressed, free-loaders would head for the pitch black confines of our Route 38 Dry Gulch.

Unfortunately, however, the hippies have to date not invaded any sector of our fair community! So it seems our leader may have had a bad trip.

Beware of protest marches by the Pop Warner Chargers, the Crusader-Swordsmen Street riots and a second Resurrection City by the Flag Footballers, all of whom would rather have walked over a hippy or two on the common in exchange for an illuminated field this fall.

EPILOGUE

Would a nation presided over by George Wallace have to put policemen on its busses?

EDITOR'S EPILOGUE

Somewhat regretfully, the editor has to declare an end to the remarks about Mr. Wallace. He will be news for the Town Crier when he comes to Wilmington, as will any other presidential candidate, but not until then.

The Town Crier has no claim to Presidential Politics as such, with or without humor.

Tickets In Short Supply

The Democratic Town Committee's annual Chicken Barbecue tickets are being sold, at this time, in Wilmington, and the word is that no tickets will be sold at the time of the outing, to late comers.

To be held on August 10th at Fred Cain's Parking Lot, the barbecue is scheduled to begin at 4 pm, and will last until 8 pm., after which there is to be dancing. Tickets are being sold for $2.50 each by members of the Democratic Town Committee.

Mrs David Holbrook Republican Finance Chairman

Mrs David A Holbrook of Church Street has been appointed the Finance Chairman of the Wilmington Republican Town Committee. The appointment was announced on July 25th at a Republican Town Committee meeting by Mrs Albert E. Kitchener, Chairman.

Jane Ann, as she is known to her many friends, resides at 45 Church Street with her husband David and four children. The telephone number is 658-2898.

This is a national election year. Therefore, a higher quota has been set by the Mass Republican State Committee. Ten dollar sustaining membership drive is underway to meet this quota.

Contributions, large or small are needed to back the Republican National Convention Theme that 'Republicans Really Care'.

Republicans are concerned about the major issues and problems facing the nation at this time, such as peace, poverty, the cities, crime growth and stability, as well as all other areas.

'Let us make this nation Great in '68' by supporting and voting Republican!

LITTLE LEAGUE VOTES IN BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The annual election of the Board of Directors of the Wilmington Little League was held on Monday night, July 29, at the American Legion Hall.

The elected officials for 1969 are as follows: Joe Bulger, Pres; Will Meuse, VP; Willis Whalen; Sec; Bob Baker, Treas; Bill Doyle Player Agent; Paul Merrigan, Umpire in Chief.

Also elected to the Board of Directors were Brad Case, Jim Tildsley, Bill Fay, Larry Foster, Larry Noel, Marty Flaherty, and Frank Sferrazza.

These thirteen men will take over as the governing body of Little League sometime in the month of October, and will conduct the organization to present another exciting year of baseball for the Wilmington Children.

NOSEY NANCY

is always something to do and someone to be with.

'You don't have to know how to play a drum or a bugle either. We didn't when we joined. Of course, if you play a drum or a brass instrument, so much the better. But the kids help you, and the instructors teach you everything you need to know. If some of you girls don't want to play a horn, go into the color guard. It's a lot more challenging than baton, we can tell you that. Come on, get some class, be someone!

'If you belong to a band, so what? A lot of our kids do too. No problem.

'Come down to Boutwell School on Tuesdays between 7 and 9 pm. Any one of the kids will take you to the Manager. He's a pretty nice guy. All your uniforms and instruments and junk are free. If you want to know more, call 658-8100 and 658-9052.

'Have you got any little brothers and sisters? We have an outfit for them too, called the Swordsmen. They have to be between 8 and 12 years old. When they get old enough, we move them up with us. They can sign up at Boutwell School on Thursdays between 6:30 pm and 8:00 pm, or call 657-7146.

JOIN THE IN GROUP...Signed THE KIDS IN THE CRUSADERS

And at the Congregational Church this week, Mr George T H Smith will be assisted by Deacon Russell A Stouffer in the Sunday morning service.

At the United Methodist Church there are two new assistant pastors Everett C Kuder from Framingham and John M Dunnack of Clayton, Delaware, both Ministers in Wenham at Gordon Divinity School. They will be doing team work with the younger generation...Dr Mack B Stokes of Atlanta Georgia will be preaching on Sunday. Dr Stokes is the author of four books and a Professor at the Candler School of Theology in Emory University in Atlanta! (You should hear him, folks. This is a great opportunity for Wilmington - 8:30 or 10:00 am.)

Bill and Rae Burns and Jean Foley have been caller on Ruth Wood up in Alfred, Maine...and I'll bet they were just welcomed Ruth is the gal with the sweet smile that brightened our town for a good many years! She wants the rest of you to say hello, if you are up her way! (Jeannie Foley says it's just off the Maine Turnpike!)

Note the Special Schedule for the Kiwanians: Aug 5th, a cook-out at Win Polsey's at 94 Chestnut Street; August 12th, Fred Worby at 316 Middlesex Avenue; August 19th Charlie Bowman at 58 High Street; August 26th Al Blackburn at 8 Carson Street. Everybody is urged to make these meetings. They say that the atmosphere is casual and you may bring along a guest!

Mrs Freeman has a young money cat or kitten four or five weeks old that wandered into her home at 490 Woburn Street near the junction of Federal and Concord and she'll be glad to return him to his rightful owner - perhaps hers - if you just give her a call!

Gotta go now, or this chick may get her head served up on a platter like Salome - because her space is running out! See you next week!

$200 MILLION
FOR CONSERVATION

Congress has voted to double the money available for buying land for new national parks and other state and federal recreation areas.

New amendments to the Land and Water Conservation Fund Act of 1965 bring total revenues up to $200 million a year for the next five years...twice the amount that the Fund had been receiving from its existing sources of revenue.

The new legislation also includes sections intended to combat the rapid escalation of land prices. One provision gives the government limited authority to take options on land when immediate funds to buy land are not available. This will prevent speculators from taking advantage of delays if intent to buy park land is announced months or years before funds are authorized.

The increase of conservation funds may make congress more willing to establish new recreation and park areas.

Hiccups, one of life's minor annoyances has been known on occasion to develop into long, wracking sieges of discomfort which defy relief.

In general, a hundred people will offer up a hundred sure-fire cures, ranging from medically accepted relief measures to rather fanciful cures dredged up from ancient folklore.

Usually a simple measure such as holding your breath or re-breathing from a paper bag is sufficient to suppress hiccups.

Another measure effective in stubborn cases which defy the more conventional cures is several rapid swallows of the juice of canned pineapple.

People are quick to offer remedies for minor ills. Rely on the advice of your doctor and prescriptions filled by your pharmacist at SILVER LAKE PHARMACY, 52 Main Street. Assorted Greeting Cards. Open 9-10 EVERY day. Clairol Cosmetics & Others. Tel. 658-4617

Bugs Going Down!

After a one-week rise in numbers, the bacteria that make swimming dangerous are beginning to disappear, in Silver Lake.

The Town Sanitarian, Ernest Romano, takes samples of the water each week. If the number of coliform bacteria in 100 milliliters begins to approach 1000, after using a membrane filter, the water is considered to be near the danger point.

On July 17th, when thousands of bathers were in the lake during the hot spell, the count was 800 at the Town Beach, and 820 at Baby Beach.

It has now dropped back to a very safe level. The count on July 23 was 150 at the Town Beach, and 50 at Baby Beach.
